

On 12 May 2008 two BA (Hons) History students at the University of Huddersfield – Helen Bradbury and Adam Woods - started their work placement on the Cricket Heritage Project as part of their degree studies. One of their first assignments was to interview Golcar CC stalwart David Thorpe at the club's Swallow Lane ground for broadcast on the project website

