

OPENING SPELL: MP Kali Mountford (left) was a special guest at the launch of the Colne Valley Cricket Exhibition at Golcar's Colne Valley Museum last Friday. The Colne Valley MP is pictured with Anne Hemingway (Head of the Exhibits Committee), and Anne Lord (the Museum's Publicity Officer). The exhibitions – entitled Bat And Ball – features archive photographs, documents and artefacts and has been researched and produced by the Cricket Heritage Project team at the University of Huddersfield, headed by Dr Peter Davies. Visitors are welcome on Saturdays and Sundays (2-5pm) until Sunday August 3. Admission is £1.60 (adults) and 80p (children/concessions). The museum is at Cliffe Ash, opposite St John's Church.

(zzhwe160608kali.)