

Farmers Arms CC

Name	Farmers Arms – named after pub at Burnlee, Holmfirth
Contact	Bill Crossland
Founded	1993 – by a group of regulars at the Farmers Arms, include some younger players
Ground	Gill Lane, Cartworth Moor. The Farmers Arms have had good support from Cartworth Moor CC – and in return they donated the patio doors for the new, recently-constructed scoreboard at the ground.
Ex-Grounds	Just one season at Holmfirth CC.
Base	The Farmers Arms.
Players	Key club members include John Roberts, who regularly bowls uphill into the wind and has played a lot of league cricket; Dave Trueman, a long-serving supporter, Paul and Matt Brown; and Bill Crossland, who has also turned out for the Almondbury Casuals.
Nature of Club	A group of cricket enthusiasts who don't want to make a commitment to Saturday and Sunday league cricket – including some ex-Allen Priests players and a number of young lads who could become very good cricketers.
Achievements	Currently in Division 1 for the first time. In 2007 the club were losing finalists in the end-of-season four-team tournament.
