

St. Patrick's Catholic Club

| | |
|----------------|---|
| Name | St. Patrick's Catholic Club |
| Contact | Mick Milnes |
| Founded | 1906 – the only one of the league's founding clubs still in existence |
| Ground | West View, Paddock (above) – since 2001 |
| Ex-Grounds | Bradley Mills plus several others |
| Base | The Catholic Club for socialising. All the cricketers are members of the club. |
| Players | Key names include Ian Senior, the Grimes family, and Mick Milnes, who has played cricket for Oxenhope, Blackley, Greetland, and in Keighley. Also supporters David Tyas and Ted Rogers. |
| Nature of Club | A social cricket club, for those who can't play weekend cricket or who work shifts etc. |
| Achievements | Winning the play-offs at Lascelles Hall in September 2003. |