

On Saturday 5 April the Cricket Heritage Project had a stall at the Pudsey Family History Fair, selling project publications and handing out project flyers

UNIVERSITY OF HUDDERSFIELD
Calderdale & Kirkstiles Cricket Heritage Project

www.crickethistory.org.uk

UNIVERSITY OF HUDDERSFIELD
Calderdale & Kirkstiles Cricket Heritage Project

www.crickethistory.org.uk

UNIVERSITY OF HUDDERSFIELD
Calderdale & Kirkstiles Cricket Heritage Project

www.crickethistory.org.uk

 ...the first of the...	 ...the first of the...	 ...the first of the...	 ...the first of the...	 ...the first of the...	 ...the first of the...
 ...the first of the...	 ...the first of the...	 ...the first of the...	 ...the first of the...	 ...the first of the...	 ...the first of the...
 ...the first of the...	 ...the first of the...	 ...the first of the...	 ...the first of the...	 ...the first of the...	 ...the first of the...

THE STORY OF WOMEN WHO CRICKET IN CALDERDALE
FROM 1880 TO THE PRESENT

UNIVERSITY OF HUDDERSFIELD

Calderdale & Kirklees Cricket Heritage Project

www.ckcricketheritage.org.uk

ve also had to serve tea in wooden pavilions devoid of electricity (Methodists).

Rastrick – above and below

Then they might sit down for a bite to eat

Mytholmroyd

side caterers or allow in-house folk to make a profit – with the money raised being kept by the club as the catering does not stop at this.

for the cricketers every 15 or 20 overs. Some are behind the bar. There are also cup finals...

(Cup) and Mytholmroyd CC (Crossley Shield)

for social and fundraising events from January onwards. One was at Bingley St Mary's CC in 2008 which had a new pavilion extension.

PUDSEY CIVIC HALL

FAMILY HISTORY FAIR
www.yourfairladies.co.uk